PROPERTY COVERAGES

INCIDENTAL PROPERTY COVERAGES

1. Collapse is deleted and replaced by the following:

Collapse

- a. "We" pay for direct physical loss to covered property involving the abrupt collapse of a building or a part of a building when such collapse is caused only by one or more of the following:
 - 1) breakage of glass or safety glazing material that is part of a building;
 - 2) insect, rodent, or "vermin" damage to a building or a part of a building, but only if no "insured" knew of or could reasonably be expected to suspect the presence of such damage prior to the collapse;
 - 3) decay of a building or a part of a building, but only if no "insured" knew of or could reasonably be expected to suspect the presence of such decay prior to the collapse;
 - 4) weight of animals, equipment, people, or personal property;
 - 5) weight of rain that collects on a roof; or
 - 6) the use of defective materials or methods in the construction, repair, or renovation of a building or a part of a building if the collapse occurs during the course of construction, repair, or renovation.

However, "we" do not pay for loss to awnings, bulkheads, cesspools, decks, docks, drains, fences, flues, foundations, patios, paved areas, piers, retaining walls, septic tanks, swimming pools, underground pipes, or wharves caused by a peril described in 1) through 6) above unless the loss is the direct result of the collapse of a building or a part of a building. With respect to loss caused by a peril described in 1) through 6) above, awnings, bulkheads, cesspools, decks, docks, drains, fences, flues, foundations, patios, paved areas, piers, retaining walls, septic tanks, swimming pools, underground pipes, and wharves are not considered to be buildings or parts of buildings, whether or not such property is attached to or connected to one or more buildings.

- b. In this Incidental Property Coverage, abrupt collapse of a building or a part of a building means an abrupt caving in, falling in, falling down, or giving way of the building or the part of the building that prevents the building or the part of the building from being occupied for the purpose for which it was intended just before caving in, falling in, falling down, or giving way.
- c. This Incidental Property Coverage does not apply to:
 - 1) a building or a part of a building that has not caved in, fallen in, fallen down, or given way even if it displays evidence of bending, bowing, bulging, cracking, expansion, inadequate load bearing capacity, leaning, sagging, settling, or shrinkage;
 - 2) a building or a part of a building in danger of caving in, falling in, falling down, or giving way; or

- 3) a part of a building that has not caved in, fallen in, fallen down, or given way even if it has separated from another part of the building.
 - d. This coverage does not increase the "limits" that apply to the property covered.
 - e. This Incidental Property Coverage for Collapse is not subject to the Bacteria, Fungi, Wet Rot, Or Dry Rot exclusion or Errors, Omissions, And Defects exclusion under Exclusions That Apply To Property Coverages.
2. Under Debris Removal, item a. is deleted and replaced by the following:
 - a. "We" pay for the reasonable cost to remove the debris of covered property after a loss. The loss must be:
 - 1) caused by a Peril Insured Against that applies to the damaged property; or
 - 2) covered under the Incidental Property Coverage for Collapse.

"We" also pay for the reasonable cost to remove volcanic ash, dust, or particulate matter that causes direct physical loss to a covered building or covered property contained in a building.

"We" will not pay more for direct physical loss to property and debris removal combined than the "limit" that applies to the damaged property. However, if the covered loss plus the cost of debris removal is more than the applicable "limit", "we" will pay up to an extra 5% of the applicable "limit" to cover the cost of debris removal.

This coverage does not include any cost or expense to test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify, neutralize, or in any way respond to or assess the effects of "pollutants".

PERILS INSURED AGAINST -- COVERAGES A, B, C, AND D

1. The first paragraph of Coverage A -- Residence And Coverage B -- Related Private Structures is deleted and replaced by the following:

- (1) continuous or repeated discharge, seepage, or leakage of water; or
- (2) the presence or condensation of humidity, moisture, or vapor;

over a period of weeks, months, or years, unless no "insured" knew of or could reasonably be expected to suspect such discharge, seepage, or leakage of water or the presence or condensation of humidity, moisture, or vapor and such loss is not otherwise excluded by this policy.

- b) Under Exclusions That Apply To Property Coverages, 1)b) and 3) of the Water exclusion that apply to surface water and water below the surface of the ground do not apply with respect to loss caused by continuous or repeated discharge, seepage, or leakage of water from a plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, or automatic fire protective sprinkling system, water heater, or domestic appliance on the "described location" if no "insured" knew of or could reasonably be expected to suspect such discharge, seepage, or leakage of water.

Plumbing systems and domestic appliances do not include sumps, sump pumps, or related equipment; any other type of system designed to remove subsurface water which is drained from the foundation area; or roof drains, gutters, downspouts, or like equipment.

Collapse Or Impairment

- a) "We" do not pay for loss involving collapse, including but not limited to:
- (1) an abrupt caving in, falling in, falling down, or giving way;
 - (2) impairment of structural integrity, including but not limited to:

 - (b) a separation of one or more parts of a building or structure from its other parts; or
 - (3) any bending, bowing, bulging, cracking, expanding, inadequacy of load bearing capacity, leaning, sagging, settling, or shrinking associated with (1) or (2) above.

"We" will defend a suit seeking damages if the suit resulted from "bodily injury" or "property damage" caused by an "occurrence" to which this coverage applies. Such defense will be provided at "our" expense by counsel that "we" choose.

"We" may make investigations and settle claims or suits that "we" decide are appropriate.

This exclusion applies even if the "bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurs is different than what was expected, directed, or intended or is suffered by persons, entities, or property not expected, directed, or intended.
